

Clearwater Task Force PSA: Servitude
Written Transcript

Radio Announcement - Male Narrator:

Good morning, Tampa Bay! If you're going to work this morning, expect heavy trafficking at I-275 near Fletcher. There's a van full of undocumented Hispanic women and girls being smuggled and forced into prostitution stalled on the shoulder and slowing things down.

On I-4, an accident, too, shut the northbound lane and stopped several truckloads of young South American men on their way to a forced labor farm.

[Sound of dishes breaking and female gasping and crying]

Radio Announcement - Female Narrator:

The trafficking of unwilling human beings is in Florida right in front of our very eyes, and we have to stop it before another day goes by.
