

United States Attorney's Office for the District of Idaho

www.justice.gov/usao/id/

The United States Attorney's Office (USAO) provides extensive services to individuals identified as victims in a case that the USAO is prosecuting, including: notification of court proceedings, notification of victims' rights, victim impact statements, referrals, and employer/creditor notification upon request. If an individual who is not an identified victim calls seeking information, they are provided limited information and appropriate referrals.

RESOURCE AND REFERRAL GUIDE

Idaho Coalition Against Identity Theft seeks to provide a coordinated community response to better assist victims of identity theft in our state.

WHAT VICTIMS CAN DO

Place a Fraud Alert on your credit reports by contacting one of the credit reporting agencies ("CRA's") listed on the back of this brochure. Request your free credit reports.

Call all companies where an account has been misused or opened fraudulently. Close or flag as necessary. Follow up in writing, enclosing an Affidavit. Call your financial institution to review your accounts for suspicious activity.

Report to the Federal Trade Commission. File a complaint online at www.ftc.gov. Enclose a copy of the complaint, called an 'FTC Affidavit,' with your letters to companies and CRAs. Provide a copy to the police if you file a police report.

File a report with Police. Request a police report even if they are unable to investigate further. Ask police to attach your FTC Affidavit to the report. To fix mistakes on your credit report, send a copy of the report to each CRA and any company that provided the inaccurate information.

CONTACT INFORMATION FOR ICAIT MEMBERS

Adult Protection Services, Area Agency on Aging, Area III 208-322-7033

http://www.sicog.org/AAA\_About.html

Adult Protection (AP) investigates allegations of exploitation of vulnerable adults 18 years of age and older. AP works with law enforcement to substantiate crimes and has case managers who assist in obtaining support services for elderly clients. AP cannot respond after hours but they do have an emergency hotline.

Aspen Consulting & Associates 208-870-9238

www.theIDTHEFTexperts.com

Can provide up to five free hours of assistance to identity theft victims. Free ID Theft Guides and downloadable ID Theft e-book available. Free ID Theft prevention consultations available to all consumers before, during, or after an ID theft incident occurs. ID theft compliance consulting and employee training for qualified employers.

Better Business Bureau Snake River Region 1-800-218-1001

<http://snake-river.bbb.org/>

BBB staff can provide reference materials such as FTC pamphlets, general information and guidance on what to do if ID theft happens to you. The BBB conducts two free shred events every year to help consumers protect their personal information from ID thieves. BBB can do speaking engagements on Identity Theft for businesses and consumers.

Idaho Attorney General's Office Consumer Protection Division 208-334-2424

www.ag.idaho.gov

AG's office can answer questions about Idaho's identity theft laws and direct consumers to other resources, such as the FTC or law enforcement. The consumer protection division publishes the Identity Theft Manual, available online. The Division's informal dispute resolution service can, in some cases, assist with identity theft-related disputes involving consumer reporting agencies or creditors. The AG's office cannot give legal advice or representation to individual consumers; it's primary service to the public concerning identity theft is education.

Idaho Crime Prevention Association

<http://idahocrimeprevent.org/>

ICPA can provide referrals to victims services and law enforcement contact information. ICPA can also provide speakers on the topic of identity theft and can provide training for providers or advocates.

Idaho Department of Finance 208-332-8000

finance.idaho.gov

Idaho Department of Finance (DOF) staff provide guidance and referrals to citizens who may be victims of ID theft and information on how to protect one's self from ID theft. DOF staff can provide speakers for presentations on ID theft or other financial services related topics. DOF may provide assistance when the ID theft involves a DOF licensee: regulated lenders, collection agencies, escrow agencies, mortgage brokers, lenders, state-chartered banks and credit unions, credit counselors, debt settlement agencies, securities brokers/agents, money services businesses, and credit repair organizations (but not federally-chartered financial institutions).

Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc. 208-345-0106 (Boise office)

www.idaholegalaid.org

When a victim calls any of Idaho Legal Aid Services' offices, they will be told steps they can take to solve their problem and will be referred to the FTC's website for further information and to access the identity theft affidavit. Idaho Legal Aid Services does not currently have funding to represent victims of identity theft unless the victim falls under one of our grants that would qualify the client for extended services (e.g., low-income senior or low-income domestic violence victim).

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) IRS Identity Theft Hotline 1-800-908-4490 Taxpayer Advocate: 1-877-777-4778

www.irs.gov

Victims of identity theft are encouraged to contact the IRS Identity Protection Specialized Unit at 1-800-908-4490.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assists with resolving tax problems when normal IRS channels are not working for a consumer.

Idaho State Tax Commission 208-334-7660

www.tax.idaho.gov

Staff can provide copies of IRS Victim Assistance brochures, Boise Police Department Identity Theft brochures, and the link to IRS form 14039. Commission staff can lock specific Idaho tax accounts to force validation of all returns filed for that Social Security number to prevent filing of false returns. Can provide to victims copies of documents showing BOTH the victim's name and SSN (but cannot disclose documents with a different name, even to the proper owner of the Social Security number).
