Get the information and skills you need to identify grant opportunities, write successful proposals, and navigate the federal funding process and basics of grant management.

Sustainability is a core issue for all victim service organizations, and federal grants and other funding resources can provide support and opportunities for innovation in service provision. This program will help professionals working in victim service organizations that rely, at least in part, on grant funding.

BY PARTICIPATING IN THIS 2-DAY TRAINING, YOU WILL:

- Learn the basics of the federal funding process; where to find grant announcements; and assess whether your organization has the expertise to apply for grants and the experience to use funding appropriately.
- Work with an actual proposal, identify your strengths and weaknesses, and discuss ways to make your funding proposals more appealing to potential funders.
- Discover tips to help you create dynamic, winning proposals tailored to your organization.

CEUs are available upon successful completion of the training.
