Victim Rights Law Center

August 2016

This presentation was produced as part of a collaboration between OVC TTAC and the Victim Rights Law Center, with funding from the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this presentation are those of the contributors and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

As with all technology, we may experience a momentary lapse in the webinar session. In the event of a problem, please be patient and remain on the line. If the problem persists, please contact our technical support representative, Danielle McLean, by sending a private chat or emailing her at dmclean@ovcttac.org for technical assistance.

The Session Today Will Be Recorded.

Make sure you are connected on the Web and on the phone. The audio for the webinar is available by phone only. Please keep your phone muted during the presentation.

Overview of Adobe Connect

Legal Assistance
for Crime Victims

An OVC Training and Technical Assistance Initiative

The screenshot displays the Adobe Connect meeting interface. At the top, a navigation bar includes 'Meeting', 'Layouts', 'Pods', 'Audio', and 'Help'. The main area is a grey textured space with a central icon of a computer monitor, a musical note, and a stack of documents labeled 'PPT' and 'PDF'. Below this icon is a 'Share My Screen' button with a dropdown arrow. On the right side, there is a sidebar with two panels: 'Attendees (1)' and 'Chat (Everyone)'. The 'Attendees' panel shows a list of participants, including 'Andra Barry', and counts for 'Speakers (0)', 'Listeners (0)', and 'Participants (0)'. The 'Chat' panel shows the message 'The chat history has been cleared' and a text input field at the bottom. Two large blue arrows point from the main area towards the 'Attendees' and 'Chat' panels.

Information & Evaluation

Legal Assistance
for Crime Victims

An OVC Training and Technical Assistance Initiative

Through OVC's Legal Assistance for Crime Victims Training and Technical Assistance Initiative, OVC's Training and Technical Assistance Center (OVC TTAC) is working to develop and deliver training and provide technical assistance to the legal community. Training and technical assistance provides attorneys across the country with the tools they need to increase their knowledge base about crime victim issues and increase their capacity to provide pro bono or no-cost legal representation to crime victims.

Visit the Legal Assistance for Crime Victims Initiative page to learn more about upcoming and archived trainings or e-mail us at legalassistance@ovcttac.org for technical assistance and support.

Thank you for attending this live chat. Please take a few minutes to complete the evaluation.
